's Family.

1. I have been requested by Wesley P. Judson to make arrangements, through the home office, for the transportation overseas for his wife and children.

2. According to his present plans, he desires to have his wife and two children, aged 9 and 4, leave New York on 10 June on the "New Amsterdam" which puts in at Rotterdam. It will be appreciated, therefore, if you will begin making arrangements on the basis of these plans. If we can give you any additional information kindly let us know at the earliest possible date.
